

Email Update on Crafton Hills Dean Changes

Crafton Faculty and Staff,

Thought I would send you a quick note on a few instructional dean changes.

- Rick Hogrefe (Dean of Social, Information and Natural Sciences) has decided to return to the classroom fulltime. He is eligible to do this under CTA retreat rights. He will officially re-join the Communication Studies faculty on July 1, 2016.
- Mark Snowwhite's interim stint as Dean of Letters, Arts and Mathematics comes to a close on July 14th. Dr. Sherrie Loewen will take over the position as the new Dean on July 18th. Make sure you swing by and welcome her to our campus.
- The search to replace Rick Hogrefe has already started. We hope to have the position advertised nationally by the end of the summer with first round interviews to be conducted in the early/mid fall semester. Look for opportunities to be involved in the hiring process (provide input on the job description? serve on the committee?).
- While we are conducting the search for our new Dean of SINS, Mark Snowwhite will extend his interim status and fill in until our replacement is found. We hope to have the new dean in place by the top of the Spring 2017 semester (or earlier if possible).
- June Yamamoto is under the strictest of orders to stay put.
