IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY
DIAL 911

Suspicious Mail or Packages

The likelihood of receiving a life threatening package is remote. Unfortunately, however, a small number of life threatening packages have been discovered over the years, and they can result in death, injury and/or destruction of property. What can you do to help prevent an incident?

Things to Look For:

- ⇒ No return address
- ⇒ Restrictive markings
- ⇒ Sealed with tape
- ⇒ Misspelled words
- ⇒ Unknown powder or suspicious substance
- ⇒ Excessive postage (Possibly mailed from a foreign country)
- ⇒ Excessive tape
- ⇒ Oily stains, discolorations, crystallization on wrap-
- ⇒ Strange Odor
- ⇒ Incorrect title or addressed to title only
- ⇒ Rigid or bulky
- ⇒ Lopsided or uneven
- ⇒ Protruding wires

If you receive a suspicious letter or package:

- Stop. Don't handle it
- Isolate it immediately
- Call 911

Emergency Preparedness

This Week: Seven Steps to Earthquake Safety: STEP 2: Plan to be safe by creating a disaster plan and deciding how you will communicate in an emergency. Before the next earthquake, get together with your family or housemates to plan now what each person will do before, during and after. Make sure that your emergency plan includes evacuation and reunion plans; your out-of-state contact person's name and number; the location of your emergency supplies and other pertinent information. Provide all family members with a list of important contact phone numbers. Teach everyone in your household to use emergency whistles and/or to knock three times repeatedly if trapped. Rescuers searching collapsed buildings will be listening for sounds. Select a safe place outside of your home to meet your family or housemates after the shaking stops. Have occasional earthquake "drills" to practice your plan. Lastly, share your plan with people who take care of your children, pets, or home.

MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees. This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies and community.
