The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees. This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies and community.

Earlier this month, Ira Smith (Pictured Above) lifted a textbook from the SBVC bookstore and eluded capture. Two weeks later, he returned and lifted two additional books and fled. However, this time officers from the SBCCD police department gave chase and apprehended him. Located inside his car where the two books along with the one from the previous theft, total value of $400.00. Smith was found to be an SBVC student and his intentions were to sell the books back to the college in an effort to fund personal needs. Smith was booked into County jail for Burglary.
