MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees.

This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies and the community.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

In honor of women throughout our state and around the country, the San Bernardino Community College District Police Department (SBCCD PD) is highlighting the history of women in law enforcement. The State of California has always been a leader when it comes to women in law enforcement appointing the first sworn policewoman, Alice Stebbins Wells, with powers to arrest.

A graduate theology student and seasoned social worker, Wells saw the need for women in "modern" police work and worked to secure the signatures of many prominent citizens on a petition, which was submitted to the Los Angeles City Council, to adopt an ordinance providing for a Los Angeles Policewoman. On September 12, 1910, Wells was officially appointed to the Los Angeles Police Department. Officer Wells was issued a Policeman's badge, a book of rules, a telephone call box key, a first aid book, and was assigned to work in Juvenile Probation. She was later issued Policewoman Badge #1! Wells went on to accomplish great milestones for women police officers.

Wells founded the International Association of Women Police in 1915, which continues to provide a forum for exchanging ideas and encouraging the use of women in important law enforcement roles. Instrumental in creating the UCLA Criminology Department's first class specifically dealing with the work of women officers in 1918, Wells co-founded the Women Peace Officers Association of California in 1928 and served as its first president. In 1934, she was appointed the Los Angeles Police Department historian, a position she held until her retirement on November 1, 1940, after 30 years of service. This pioneering policewoman died on August 17, 1957, at the age of 84.

WOMEN OFFICERS OF THE SBCCD PD

In keeping with Women's History Month, the SBCCD PD is proud and honored to recognize the three sworn law enforcement "Sheros" on our staff. These dedicated and hardworking women are responsible for protecting students, faculty and staff; patrolling the SBCCD to reduce crime, assisting the SBCCD PD with implementing its Community Policing strategies, and promoting overall safety throughout the campus community.

Corporal Gina Gonzalez joined the SBCCD PD in November of 2012 after working for the San Bernardino County Sheriff Department (SBCSD). Born in Long Beach, Officer Gonzalez graduated from Cerritos High School, studied at San Bernardino Valley College (SBVC), and graduated from the SBCSD Intensive Police Academy. Corporal Gonzalez is one of three Field Training Officers assigned to the SBCCD PD, tasked with training new probationary College Police Officers so they are able to work safely and competently as solo police officers.

Officer Angelica Arechavaleta joined the SBCCD PD in January of 2019. A native of San Bernardino, Officer Arechavaleta graduated from San Geronio High School, earned her Associate of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from SBVC and her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice from Cal State University San Bernardino. Officer Arechavaleta graduated from the SBVC's Extended Police Academy, Class #37, in 2018 and was honorably selected "Most Motivated Cadet" by the SBVC Police Academy Tactical staff.

Officer Stephanie Babino joined the SBCCD PD in April of 2019. Officer Babino was born in Houston, Texas and raised in San Bernardino. Officer Babino graduated from San Bernardino High School and has studied at Cal State University Los Angeles, SBVC, and Azusa Pacific University. Officer Babino graduated the SBCSD Intensive Police Academy in 2016, and previously worked as a police officer for the Compton Unified School District.
