MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH MONTH

Mental Health And COVID-19. As the number of COVID-19 cases throughout California increase, so does the associated anxiety. For the general public, the mental health effects of COVID-19 are as important to address as are the physical health effects. And, for the one in five who already have mental health conditions – or the one in two who are at risk of developing them – we need to take personal and professional measures now to address them.

Outbreaks Can Be Stressful. The outbreak of COVID-19 may be stressful for people. Fear and anxiety about a disease can be overwhelming and cause strong emotions in adults and children. Coping with stress will make you, the people you care about, and your community stronger.

Stress during an infectious disease outbreak can include:

- ✓ Fear and worry about your own health and the health of your loved ones
- ✓ Changes in sleep or eating patterns and an increased use of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs
- ✓ Worsening of mental health conditions

Ways To Cope With Stress? Take Care Of Your Body!

- ✓ Take breaks from watching, reading, or listening to COVID-19 news stories, including social Media, because hearing about the pandemic repeatedly can be upsetting
- ✓ Take deep breaths, stretch, or meditate and get plenty of sleep
- ✓ Try to eat healthy, well-balanced meals and avoid alcohol and drugs
- ✓ Exercise regularly, and connect with others. Talk with people you trust about how you are feeling

Need Help? Know Someone Who Does?

If you, or someone you care about, are feeling overwhelmed with emotions like sadness, depression, or anxiety, or feel like you want to harm yourself or others:

- ✓ Call 9-1-1
- ✓ Call the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration \(SAMHSA\) at (800) 985-5990 to speak with a crisis counselor immediately
- ✓ Text "TalkWithUs" to 66746 to connect with a trained SAMHSA crisis counselor

NEW ONLINE POLICE REPORTING SYSTEM

The San Bernardino Community College District \(SBCCD\) Police Department \(PD\) has launched a new Online Police Reporting System. This new system will allow you to submit a report immediately and print a copy of the police report free of charge. By using the SBCCD PD Online Police Reporting System, you can report incidents such as Campus Safety Issues, Harassing Phone Calls, Hit and Run accidents, Minor Vehicle Accidents, Identity Theft, Lost Property, Thefts, Traffic Complaints, Vandalism and Vehicle Burglary. However, you must first verify and confirm the following information to determine if the Online Police Reporting System is right for you and your situation:

- The incident is not an emergency
- The incident occurred at San Bernardino Valley College, Crafton Hills College, or another SBCCD affiliated property
- The incident did not occur on a State freeway
- There are no known suspects

If you are able to answer "yes" to all of the questions listed above, you can file a report online. If you answered "no" to any of the questions listed above, you should review the "Frequently Asked Questions" section.

Upon completion of the reporting process, you will:

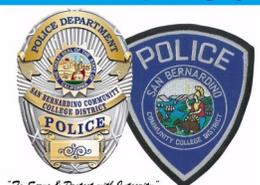

- See the words "Your online police report has been submitted" which indicates your police report is complete
- Be given a police report case number
- Be able to print a copy of the police report to keep for your records

Please Note:

- All cases filed using the Online Police Reporting System will be reviewed
- Upon review, if further investigation of your case is needed, you may be contacted
- Filing a false police report is a crime

If your incident is not listed in the category selection list, please call the SBCCD PD non-emergency line at (909) 384-4491 to file a report or dial 9-1-1 in case of an emergency.
