Every business owner, manager and employee plays a part in making businesses safe. Here are some things you can do to help prevent robbery:

Have at least two employees open and close the business.

Do not release personal information to strangers.

Keep purses and personal valuables locked in desks or lockers.

Install a robbery alarm

Don't use marked "moneybags" that make it obvious to could-be robbers you are carrying money for deposit.

Cooperate with the robber for your own safety and the safety of others. Comply with a robber's demands. Remain calm and think clearly. Make mental notes of the robber's physical description and other observations important to law enforcement officers.

If you have a silent alarm and can reach it without being noticed, use it. Otherwise, wait until the robber leaves.

Make sure the sales counter can be seen clearly. Don't put up advertisements, flyers, displays, signs, posters or other items on the windows or doors that might obstruct the view of the register from inside or outside your business. The police cruising by your store need to see in.

Try to greet customers as they enter your business. Look them in the eye, and ask them if they need help. Your attention can discourage a robber.

If you see something suspicious, call the police. Never try to handle it yourself. It could cost you your life.

If your business is robbed put your safety first. Your personal safety is more important than money or merchandise.

Don't talk except to answer the robbers questions. Don't make any sudden moves.

Don't chase or follow the robber out of your place of business.

Leave the job of catching the robber to the police
