Found Property

The Police Department is the centralized location for all found property. Please turn in any found items so they can be returned to the rightful owner. You can also call to have found items picked up. If you have lost something feel free to stop by the police department and check if your lost item has been turned in.

PARENTS BEWARE!

For teens, end-of-the-school-year festivities such as prom, graduation, and the start of summer vacation usually translate into one thing: Party!!

But for parents, especially those who host or chaperone, the parties translate into a whole other thing: Beware!

When it comes to kids and alcohol, a parent can take every safety precaution they can possibly think of it and still be held responsible for almost anything that happens as a result of underage drinking on their property. All parents should proceed with extreme caution if you're going to have a large group of teenagers in your home.

In fact, you don't necessarily have to be anywhere near the party or even know that kids are at your house to be arrested for a crime. States have different "social host laws" and under some of them, a parent can face criminal charges and hefty fines if an accident occurs as a result of any underage drinking at your home. Even if, say, you're away on vacation and have no idea that anything is going down in the first place.

Law enforcement is going to get especially aggressive from now until Labor Day.

"The police tend to patrol more during the next few months and put up more road blocks around prom time through the summer holidays. "And they will try to trace the underage drinking back to the source."

So what's a parent to do -- never host a celebration for your teen? Well, you can, but the more your kids know about the dangers of underage drinking, the safer everyone will be.

TIMELY WARNING — ALERT

Dear SBVC students/staff/faculty,

At approximately 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, May 16, 2012, a female student was grabbed from behind while walking to her car parked in Lot #9 (behind the Campus Center adjacent to Grant Avenue). Her attacker attempted to wrestle her car keys from her, but she kicked him in the mid-section, raced to her car, and drove away safely.

The attacker was described as an African-American male in his mid-40's, approximately 6 feet tall with a medium build and wearing a tan-colored trench coat.

If you or somebody you know may have witnessed the attack or has any information that may assist the San Bernardino Community College District Police that are currently investigating the matter, please call 909-384-4491.

Here are a few safety precautions to keep in mind:

- Always be aware of your surroundings—including looking over your shoulder from time to time.
- Wearing headphones or looking down at your cell phone while walking to/from your vehicle may leave you more susceptible to a surprise attack
- When possible, walk in groups and through well-lit pathways

Sincerely,

Pierre Galvez
Lieutenant
San Bernardino Community College District
