Verbal Assault, Harassment, Intimidation and Defamation

Statement of Principles

Intolerance and bigotry are antithetical to the values of the college and unacceptable within the college community. One of the ways the college seeks to effect this value is through a policy of nondiscrimination, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, atypical heredity or cellular blood trait, military service or veteran status in college programs. In order to reinforce institutional goals of nondiscrimination, tolerance, and civility, the following policy against verbal assault, harassment, intimidation and defamation is intended to inform students that the verbal assault, harassment, intimidation and defamation of others violates acceptable standards of conduct within the college. (This policy is not intended to supersede the college's policy against sexual harassment.)

Verbal assault, harassment, intimidation or defamation interferes with the mission of the college. Each member of this community is expected to be sufficiently tolerant of others so that all students are free to pursue their goals in an open environment, able to participate in the free exchange of ideas and able to share equally in the benefits of our educational opportunities. Beyond that, each member of the community is encouraged to do all that she or he can to ensure that the college is fair, humane and responsible to all students.

A community establishes standards in order to be able to fulfill its mission. The policy against verbal assault, harassment, intimidation and defamation seeks to guarantee certain minimum standards.

MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees. This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies and community.

Verbal Assault, Harassment, Intimidation and Defamation (con't)

Free speech and the open discussion of ideas are an integral part of the college community and are fully encouraged, but acts that restrict the rights and opportunities of others through violence, intimidation, the destruction of property, or verbal assault which has the effect of inciting violence or causing undue alarm, even if communicative in nature, are not protected speech and are to be condemned.

Prohibited Conduct

Use of force against the person or property of any member of the college community or against the person or property of anyone on college premises, or the threat of such physical abuse.

Theft of, or intentional damage to, college property, or property in the possession of, or owned by, a member of the college.

Intimidation and harassment: a person acts with the purpose to intimidate and harass another by:

Making, or causing to be made, a communication or communications (including the use of electronic and/or social media) anonymously or at extremely inconvenient hours, or in offensively coarse language, or any other manner likely to cause annoyance or alarm; or subjecting another to striking, kicking, shoving, or other offensive touching, or threatening to do so; or engaging in any other course of alarming conduct or of repeatedly committed acts with purpose to alarm or seriously annoy another person, such that the behavior substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the institution or the rights of other students to participate in or benefit from the educational program.

Defamation, which is judicially defined to mean, and here means, the unprivileged oral, written, or electronic publication of a false statement of fact that exposes the person about whom it is made to hatred, contempt, or ridicule, or subjects that person to loss of the good will and confidence of others, or so harms that person's reputation as to deter others from associating with her or him. Defamation is considered a separation offense.

While any of the four categories of acts listed above is a separation offense, that, if proven, could lead to a sanction of expulsion or suspension from the college under the provisions of the College Code of Student Conduct, clearly minor instances of such prohibited behavior should be resolved at the college level and not be treated as separation offenses requiring a college-level hearing.

Individuals who wish to discuss any matter with the police or if they feel they are in need of immediate police attention may contact the San Bernardino Community College District Police Department at (909) 384-4491.
