Suspect Targets College Students

Riverside, CA - In June 2014, Riverside Police began receiving complaints of a suspect approaching college age victims and asking that they help cash checks for him. The suspect claimed to own a struggling smog check business and his bank would not allow him to cash checks. Victims would deposit the suspect's checks and then withdraw cash, usually $200.00 to $400.00, which was given to the suspect. The victim would be notified days later by their bank that the checks were fraudulent.

One victim was able to take cell phone photos of the suspect and his vehicle. Detectives distributed information flyers to patrol officers and the below pictured suspect was identified as Michael Cornelius Gaines, JR., 29, of Moreno Valley, CA. As detectives searched for Gaines, they learned that a suspect matching a similar description was committing similar crimes in the City of San Bernardino. An Arrest warrant for Gaines was requested by Riverside Police detectives on charges of Kidnapping, Check Fraud, False Imprisonment, and Receiving Stolen Property.
