IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY

DIAL 911

The SBCCD PD would like to introduce its newest College Security Officer, Ryan Garcia. CSO Garcia is a graduate of Upland High School where he excelled in wrestling. He is currently pursuing a degree in Business Administration. Garcia's goal is to obtain his degree and then pursue a career as a police officer. So on behalf of our department, please help us welcome Mr. Garcia...

Emergency Preparedness

This week: THE 12 WEEK PLAN: WEEK 5: Last week you should have gathered children's items and some entertainment needs for you and your family. This week, you need to pack for your pets. You need to have PLENTY of extra water for each of your pets, as well as food, and any special dietary needs or medications. Make sure to have extra leashes, beds, and toys for them. It is highly recommended that each of your pets get micro chipped in the event that you and your pet get separated. In addition, have each pet wear a collar with tags that have your pet's name and your cell phone number on it. For more info: www.ready.gov

MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees.
