Caylynn Simonson was born in Bakersfield, California in 1991. She graduated from Centennial High School and went on to receive a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Biology from UCLA in 2014. After being assaulted as a student at UCLA and reporting her assault, Caylynn decided to speak up and give a voice to other victims of sexual assault who may be going through similar struggles. She became an advocate for sexual assault awareness in 2014 and since then, she has travelled across California on her collegiate speaking tour, speaking to universities and audiences about reducing risk of a sexual assault, and the importance of reporting. Since April 2014, she has spoken to over 2,500 college-aged men and women, at over 20 different Greek organizations and universities across California. Caylynn is a certified speaker with the RAINN Speakers Bureau and an ambassador for Blingsting, the rhinestone pepper spray with a cause. Caylynn currently lives in Orange County and is working as a pharmaceutical sales.
