IN CASE OF EMERGENCY DIAL 911

SBCCD Police Dispatch is available Monday-Friday from 7:00 am-10:00 pm. After 10:00 pm and on weekends, our phones are transferred to the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department who dispatch SBCCD Officers to calls.

For daily incidents reports and other crime information, go to the Police Web site: <http://sbccd.org/police>

MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees. This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies and community.

September is National Campus Safety Awareness Month, which aims to call attention to issues of campus safety and help young adults learn how to stay safe and help keep others safe, too. Throughout the month, our friends at loveisrespect are focusing on bystander awareness and discussing how active bystanders can help prevent assault and violence.

According to loveisrespect, being an active bystander means:

- Speaking up if you witness violence or assault
- Taking action if you sense that someone needs help

Knowing what consent is and what it looks like

Calling out words or ideas that perpetuate rape culture, misogyny, or gender stereotypes; check out this NPR segment on the power of the peer group in preventing campus rape

The Clery Center is providing professional development trainings each week in September on topics ranging from dating violence and sexual assault to fire safety. Sign up with them to receive email updates and learn more about how your school can keep students safe!

We believe that everyone deserves safe and healthy relationships, on campus or off. If you have a child who is attending college this fall, there are a few things you can do to help them stay safe and cultivate healthy relationships while away at school:

Keep the lines of communication open. Your child might be gaining more independence, but that doesn't mean they don't need you anymore. Regular check-ins by phone, email, or Skype can keep you up to date on what's happening in their lives and let them know that you're still there for them.

Familiarize yourselves with relevant laws, university policies, and available resources. The Clery Act and Title IX are important to know. Not sure what a school's sexual assault policies are? Here are 18 questions to ask. Not Alone, the White House's official website on campus sexual assault, also lists pertinent resources and information about campus sexual assault.

Caught in Action

SBCCD Police Department would like to recognize Dione Borges for her hard work and dedication, to our department and campus community. Dione goes above and beyond to help students with her friendly personality and giving heart. Dione's compassion for people and animals has been contagious. She is always willing to help our students in anyway she can. Thanks Dione for your kind helping hand to our department and our campus community.

Quote from Dione:

“I believe being a Campus Security Officer on a Community College you have the opportunity to change how young adults see law enforcement. Also, while patrolling campus I believe every staff member and faculty members main job is student customer service, we would not have jobs if we do not have students. Besides, I enjoy everyone on both SBVC and CHC Campus.”
