The San Bernardino Community College District Police Department is honored to announce that Police Officer Jose Plasencia has been selected as the Officer of the Year for 2018.

Officer Jose Plasencia was born in Fontana, CA and graduated from Norte Vista High School in Riverside, CA. At age 22, he entered the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department Police Academy and successfully graduated in March 2006. He later joined the San Bernardino Community College District Police Department (SBCCD PD) in October 2010.

Officer Plasencia received a Bachelor of Science degree from Argosy University in Orange County and his Master of Arts degree in Management from the University of Redlands. He is a Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Certified Field Training Officer for the SBCCD PD. In that capacity, Officer Plasencia is responsible for training new College Police and Security Officers in all aspects of their new job and ensuring they are appropriately prepared to provide an exceptional level of service to students, faculty and staff throughout the campus community.

Officer Plasencia is a member of the Crafton Hills College Behavioral Intervention Team (B.I.T). The B.I.T promotes the health and safety of SBCCD students, faculty, and staff by providing an atmosphere where individuals are free to work and learn in a safe and supportive environment.

Officer Plasencia works as part of the patrol team at the SBCCD PD where he brings a positive attitude to work every day. He is dependable and is always willing to lend a helping hand when needed. He also continues to work and build on relationships with local law enforcement agencies and is committed to portraying a positive image for law enforcement to the campus community he proudly serves.

Officer Plasencia leads by example and is a great representative of what is good about law enforcement. It is for these reasons the SBCCD PD is honored to recognize and select Officer Plasencia as the Officer of the Year for 2018. He will be honored at a dinner hosted by the San Bernardino Area Chamber of Commerce.

Congratulations!
