MISSION STATEMENT

The SBCCD Police Department, in concert with the Board of Trustees, is committed to providing a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees. This will be accomplished through a cooperative and coordinated effort involving all departments and the SBCCD employees, law enforcement agencies

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

As we celebrate Black History Month here in the United States, it's a good time to reflect on black history in law enforcement.

Numerous resources recognize Wiley Overton as the first black police officer in the United States. Officer Overton was sworn in at the Brooklyn Police Department (now part of the New York City Police Department) on March 6, 1891.

However, in 2008 a police archivist uncovered information revealing an even earlier “first.” Sergeant Horatio Homer was the first black officer hired by the Boston Police Department on Christmas Eve in 1878. Sergeant Homer went on to serve with the department for over four decades.

Today, law enforcement agencies are much more diverse. In fact, many agencies strive for diversity with more and more agencies conducting targeted recruitment campaigns for women and minorities.

Read more about the value of diversity in law enforcement on the Discover Policing website, and the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives \(NOBLE\) website, which serves to unify black law enforcement officers at the executive and command levels.
