WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

In honor of women throughout our state and around the country, the San Bernardino Community College District Police Department (SBCCD PD) is highlighting the history of women in law enforcement. The State of California has always been a leader when it comes to women in law enforcement appointing the first sworn policewomen, Alice Stebbins Wells, with powers to arrest. A graduate theology student and seasoned social worker, Wells saw the need for women in "modern" police work and worked to secure the signatures of many prominent citizens on a petition, which was submitted to the Los Angeles City Council, to adopt an ordinance providing for a Los Angeles Policewomen. On September 12, 1910, Wells was officially appointed to the Los Angeles Police Department. Officer Wells was issued Policeman's Badge #1! Wells went on to accomplish great milestones for women police officers.

Wells founded the International Association of Women Police (www.iawp.org) in 1915, which continues to provide a forum for exchanging ideas and encouraging the use of women in important law enforcement roles. Instrumental in creating the UCLA Criminology Department's first class specifically dealing with the work of women officers in 1918, Wells co-founded the Women Peace Officers Association of California in 1928 and served as its first president. In 1934, she was appointed the Los Angeles Police Department historian, a position she held until her retirement on November 1, 1940, after 30 years of service. This pioneering policewomen died August 17, 1957, at the age of 84.

APPLE AIRTAG TRACKER INFORMATION

Recently, law enforcement nationwide have been encountering criminals using the Apple Airtag trackers. An Airtag is a 1.26-inch disc with bluetooth location tracking capabilities. In recent months, people have reported finding Airtags on their cars and/or belongings. There is growing concern that the devices may be used as a new form of stalking. San Bernardino County has started seeing similar cases where Airtags were located or suspected of being used by a subject to track a victim. It is recommended that if a victim receives a notification that an Airtag is tracking their location, they should drive directly to the nearest police station. On Apple cellular phones, the notification will appear similar to the diagram. Non-Apple devices may not notify the victim.
