4 COLLEGE NEWSPAPER
5

6
7 A. Publication
8

9 The newspaper shall endeavor to publish timely editorials, opinion columns, and letters to
10 the editor concerning events and issues of interest to its readers in keeping with recognized
11 principles of editorial and academic freedom and responsibility.
12

13 B. Protest
14

15 In the event that any member or segment of the college community--employee, or student--
16 believes that the newspaper breaches commonly accepted journalistic standards of fairness,
17 good taste, or judgment in administrative or editorial policy, and when less formal means do
18 not provide a satisfactory solution, the established grievance procedures for students and
19 staff may be called upon to provide redress or correction.
20

21 C. Committee Hearing
22

23 If a dispute cannot be resolved within a reasonable time in order to meet a publication
24 deadline, an ad hoc committee consisting of one member of the Academic Senate
25 (appointed by the President of the Senate), one member of the Associated Students
26 (appointed by the President of the Associated Students), and one member of the college
27 management group (appointed by the college president) shall be convened to adjudicate.
28

29 D. Formation of Committee
30

31 A request for formation of the above ad hoc committee shall be made through the English
32 Department Head.
