4 RESIDENCE DETERMINATION
5

- 6 A. Each student, at the time the application for admission is filed, shall be classified as a
7 California resident or non-resident. In addition each time a student returns to active status
8 after an absence of one semester or more, the residency classification shall be re-
9 determined.
- 10
11 B. The residence determination date is that day immediately preceding the first day of 12 instruction of the term as set by the Board. A student previously classified as a nonresident
13 may be reclassified as of any residence determination date.
14
- 15 C. A student may be required to present evidence of physical presence in California, intent to 16 make California their home for other than a temporary purpose and, if the student was 17 classified as a non-resident in the preceding term, financial independence.
18
- 19 D. Applicants shall certify their answers on college admission documents under oath of penalty
20 for perjury. The burden of proof is on the applicant to demonstrate clearly both physical 21 presence in California and intent to establish California residency. Students classified as 22 non-residents will be required to pay nonresident tuition fees as established by the Board in 23 addition to other fees.
