

Career Education Program Two-Year Review
Program Efficacy Report
Spring 2015

Name of Department: RTVF

Efficacy Team: Michael Mayne, Stacy Meyer

Overall Recommendation (include rationale):

Continuation:

The RTVF program is a viable program with many community and campus ties. There is adequate demand for the program. The data given supports the program and aligns with the Core competencies of the college.

1. Purpose of this Program

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets
The report clearly states what the program is about.

2. Demand for this Program

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets
There is adequate demand for this program. Job outlook is good. The retention and student success rates are good.

3. Quality of this Program

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets
The program meets the student needs and the needs of the industry.

4. External Issues

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets
The program works with the community regarding external issues.

5. Cost of this Program

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets
The program is funded through the District office, grants and general budget each year. The program also has a fund raiser each year that allows the students to show the public the work they have accomplished during the semester.

6. Two-Year Plan

Efficacy Team Analysis and Feedback: Meets

The program has set up an internship within the film industry to allow student to work with professional film makers before entering into the industry themselves.