Subject: welcome new full-time faculty!

Hello new full-time faculty,

I hope your semester is going well so far! For those of you that have not met me, my name is Rania and I am the Professional and Organizational Development Coordinator. My job consists of a lot of things, but one of the most important components is to help all faculty with their professional development needs. I can help answer a range of questions and if I don't know the answer I can at least help get you to the right person!

I will also be taking you through new faculty orientation which will fulfill your flex obligation for the first year (I'll explain what that means when we meet).

Normally we'll have the sessions once or twice a month on Friday—I'd like to start the sessions next Friday --would everyone be available on Friday, September 13 from 11am-noon?

I have some specific topics that we'll need to discuss- but I'd also like to know what questions you'd like answered/ topics to cover as you navigate through your first year?

Looking forward to working with you,

Rania
