Subject: Have you registered? Convocation Week: August 11-14

Hello all,

Please see the email below for our Convocation Week website.

As a reminder- Flex Day (optional attendance) and Adjunct Orientation are tomorrow, August 11- starting @ 12:15- The division meetings begin @ 3:15pm. Anyone is welcome to attend flex day and adjunct orientation sessions.

Faculty Chairs- If you would like to meet with your adjunct faculty after the division meeting ends @ 4:30pm, please schedule a zoom meeting and send the link to the adjuncts in your department ASAP.

In-service days begin on Wednesday, August 12--Events/Meetings are not optional for full-time faculty, unless otherwise specified.

Faculty Chairs, please remember, after the division meeting on Wednesday you can schedule a 1 hour department meeting. If there is no need for a department meeting, please communicate this to your full-time faculty. If you are scheduling a meeting, please send the zoom link to your department. Afternoon sessions begin @ 1pm

Our first Academic Senate meeting is also scheduled on Wednesday, August 12- If you are a senator, please attend this meeting. All other faculty, classified employees and managers can attend if they'd like.

August 13 and August 14 will be exciting days for SBVC, we'll have guest speakers and robust dialogue!

As we move into this week, I really want to thank each of you for asking questions, showing your support and helping in many different ways. I am fortunate to be part of this SBVC family, we are growing and learning together! And even during these very challenging times we continue to show each other kindness and respect. Thank you.

If you have any additional questions, please reach out to me!

Rania

Dear SBVC Family,

It may be hard to believe, but Fall 2020 is just around the corner. As we continue to serve our students through this challenging time, it is important that we continue to connect with each other, listen, and learn, so that we may build an amazing fall semester together. To make this happen, we have an exciting week of professional development events lined up. Please join me for our first-ever, virtual Convocation Week.

I look forward to seeing you throughout the week at our Adjunct Orientation, In-Service Days, Guided Pathways: Reimagined, and Opening Day, our semesterly campus-wide meeting.

Click one of the dates below or visit www.valleycollege.edu/convocation to see the full schedule. Registration is required for every session.

See you next week!
