TITLE IX

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION AND GENDER EQUITY IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Your future starts here.

Title IX

The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces, among other statutes, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Title IX protects people from discrimination based on sex in education programs or activities that receive Federal financial assistance. Title IX states that: No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Beginning July 1st, 2015 the OCR requires that all students and employees to participate in annual Title IX training and awareness of sexual discrimination. OCR vigorously enforces Title IX to ensure that institutions that receive federal financial assistance comply with the law. OCR evaluates, investigates, and resolves complaints alleging sex harassment and/or unlawful discrimination. OCR also conducts proactive investigations, called compliance reviews, to examine potential systemic violations based on sources of information other than complaints.

The San Bernardino Community College District does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, creed, religion, disability, marital status, veteran status, national origin, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. To file a Title IX complaint, contact the Title IX Administrator, Dr. Ricky Shabazz, Vice President of Student Services, at rshabazz@valleycollege.edu or (909) 384-4473.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination and sexual harassment of students. This includes any acts of sexual misconduct, violence, same gender harassment as well as student to student harassing conduct that creates a hostile environment. All such conduct is prohibited under federal law, state law, and SBCCD Board Policy 3430.

Sexual Misconduct Defined

Sexual misconduct, as prohibited under federal law, state law, and University policy, is defined as unwelcomed sexual advances, sexual assaults or requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Misconduct constitutes sexual harassment when:

2. Submission to or reject of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions or academic decisions affecting such individual, or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational or work environment.

Examples of Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Include:

- Unwelcomed sexual advances or requests for sexual favors.
- Unwelcomed physical, verbal, or non-verbal behavior of a sexual nature based on sex.
- Terms of endearment.
- Pressure for a date or "personal" relationship.

- Angry, intimidating and/or threatening behavior based on a person's sex.
- Sexual jokes, comments, or innuendos.
