

The SBVC Arts, Lectures & Diversity Committee

is proud to present...

Nahuatl Language Workshop

Facilitated by Stephanie Lozano, this workshop is crafted to introduce participants to this, once believed to be extinct ancient Meso-American language which was spoken by the indigenous peoples of North and Central America...

as well as highlight the lexicon it gifted to many modern languages still in use today.

TODAY at 4 p.m. in the Library Viewing Room, LIB149

You will find the link to our A,L&D Facebook event page here: Nahuatl Language Workshop Event

Admission and parking are free.

Please help us promote this event & consider encouraging participation of this event to your students & organizations.

If you would like to opt out of any further A,L&D event announcement emails...please click here: UNSUBSCRIBE

