Associate Degree Programs:

Associate degrees prepare you for employment and/or transfer to a university. Associate degree programs consist of 60 degree-applicable units in your chosen major and the required general education courses. Generally, it takes two years to complete a degree program, on a full-time basis.

Certificate Programs:

If you are seeking skills development and employment upon completion of requirements, the certificate program will be your choice for an educational goal. Certificate programs consist of 18 or more degree-applicable units in your chosen major. The length of the certificate programs may vary from one semester to four semesters.
