San Bernardino Valley College has articulation agreements with many independent universities in California and out-of-state. The articulation agreements identify courses completed at one institution that are equivalent to the requirements of another institution for major preparation, general education and transfer.

By following the courses listed on the articulation agreements between SBVC and the university of choice for transfer, students can eliminate coursework duplication, reduce college credit educational expenses and gain advanced education. Following the courses on the list for your major at an independent/private university of your choice will permit students to enter the major at that university without the need to repeat lower-division courses in the major.
