Computer Requirements & Support

What technology do I need to take an online class? And what if I need help?

Online and hybrid classes will require a computer with a modern operating system. That computer must have access to the internet and must have a modern web browser. Students can also use the open labs on campus to access their online classes.

Although much of the information can be accessed using mobile devices, such as phone and tablets, it is recommended that students have access to a computer with a modern operating system and a solid connection to the internet.

The Central Help Desk is available 24/7 to all faculty, staff, and students. They can be reached on campus at (x4357) and off campus at this number (909) 384-4357.
