Basic Information

About

Associated Student Government (ASG) is an elected and appointed group of students who are given the opportunity to represent the students of San Bernardino Valley College (SBVC) - addressing and advising their issues and concerns.

ASG offers students opportunities to share in college governance, network with professionals and participate in social, political, and cultural activities and events. Furthermore, these students are encouraged to create and administer their own programs and reflect diversity, instill self reliance and responsibility.
