SAN BERNARDINO, California—On Tuesday, December 4, 2018, the San Bernardino Valley College campus will once again transform into a winter-themed wonderland from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. for the college’s third annual “WinterFest.”

This campus-wide celebration of the coming of the holiday season has attracted thousands of students, staff, and community members to campus in previous years. WinterFest treats its visitors to a festive holiday atmosphere with free games, pictures with Santa, musical performances, planetarium shows, children’s activities, and holiday movie screenings. There will also be delicious holiday foods, coffee, hot chocolate and art available for purchase.

This exciting event is free to attend and open to the community.
