FINANCIAL AID OFFICE
CERTIFICATION OF HOUSEHOLD SIZE
INSTRUCTIONS

DEFINITION OF HOUSEHOLD SIZE: The number of people to be included in household size reflects those who will receive from their family more than half of their support between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005. "More than half of their support" means more than one-half of all basic maintenance costs for the entire 12-month period, or full support for at least six months.

"DEPENDENT" STUDENT: There are four categories of people who can be included in the household size of the dependent student:

- The student should always be included.
- The student's parents should be included as follows:
 - a. Parents are married to each other: include both.
 - b. Parent is widowed: include only the surviving parent.
 - c. Parents are separated or divorced: include only the parent who provided financial information on the 2004-2005 FAFSA.
 - d. Parent is remarried: include the stepparent (even if they were not married in 2003).
- The student's brothers and sisters should be included if they get more than half of their support from your parents or if they would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal financial aid in 2004-05.
- Other Persons should be included only if:
 - a. they now live with you; and
 - b. they now get more than half of their support from your parents; and
 - c. they will continue to get more than half of their support from your parents between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005.

"INDEPENDENT" STUDENT: There are four categories of people who can be included in the household size of the independent student.

- The student should always be included.
- The student's spouse should be included. (A student who is separated, divorced, or widowed should not include his/her spouse in the household size.)
- The student's dependent children should be included if they get more than half of their support from you (and/or your spouse) or if they would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal financial aid in 2004-2005.
- Other Persons should be included only if:
 - a. they now live with you; and
 - b. they now get more than half of their support from you; and
 - c. they will continue to get more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2004 and June 30, 2005.
