

2023-2024 Catalog Addendum

This addendum to the 2023-2024 San Bernardino Valley College Catalog reflects updates and offers new educational opportunities for students. These updates/revisions were approved after the 2023-2024 Catalog was published online. Although every effort has been made to ensure accuracy of the information, all students should consult with a counselor for further information.

Our Mission: San Bernardino Valley College provides innovative instructional programs and cohesive student services to support the educational goals of a culturally diverse community of learners by engaging in continuous improvement and actively working towards an antiracist culture to foster an environment of meaningful learning and belonging for our students, employees, and the community.

New Courses

CONST 600

Noncredit

Multi-Craft Core Curriculum (MC3)

LECTURE: 150 contact hours per semester

LAB: 30 contact hours per semester

The Multi-Craft Core Curriculum (MC3) noncredit course prepares students for a career in industrial maintenance, construction, and engineering by providing comprehensive and practical content emphasizing both technical and soft skills essential for success in any industry. Students will acquire a competitive advantage in the job market and gain the confidence needed to pursue their career goals. The MC3 program is recognized by the Building Trades National Apprenticeship and Training Committee and is an excellent pathway for individuals interested in pursuing registered apprenticeship programs.

Addition to the 2023-2024 Catalog.

FTVM 601

Noncredit

Steadicam Operation

LAB: 18 contact hours per semester

This noncredit course will provide instruction on the use of the Steadicam. Steadicam is now a commonly used tool within the film and television industry that requires training and practice in order to produce good results. More than just a stabilizer, as a shooting system it is able to provide an individual style to the production often greatly desired by producers and directors. Additionally, complex moving scenes can not only be quicker to shoot, but also more dramatic by adding pace and dimension to the shot.

Addition to the 2023-2024 Catalog.

HUMSV 601

Noncredit

Family Violence

LECTURE: 36 contact hours per semester

This noncredit course provides a study of historical, psychological, sociological, and legal aspects of violence within the family system through the perspective of the helping professions with a sensitivity to ethnicity, gender, sexuality, and marginalized communities. This course will explore interventions, and referral of families experiencing violence.

Addition to the 2023-2024 Catalog.

New Degree

Social Justice, Advocacy, and Community Associate of Arts Degree

The Associate of Arts Degree in Social Justice, Advocacy and Community is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the complex social, political, and economic issues that contribute to social inequalities and injustices. Courses in this program will cover a range of topics, including the history and theories of social justice, the role of advocacy and activism in effecting change, and the principles and practices of community organizing. Graduates of this program will be well-equipped to pursue further education in related fields, or to enter the workforce in a variety of roles, such as community organizer, social worker, activist, policy analyst, or advocate. They will be prepared to make a positive impact in their communities and to contribute to the ongoing struggle for social justice and equity.
