

San Bernardino Valley College
Articulation Timeline
2015-2016

The articulation cycle works one year in advance. The following describes an entire cycle for review and approval for CSU/UC course transferability and inclusion in their respective GE patterns. Note: Within guidelines set forth in CSU Executive Order No. 1033- SBVC has the authority to deem courses CSU transferable.

Courses approved by SBVC
Curriculum Committee
2014-2015

August 2015

Articulation Officer submit courses to UCOP to review for UC transferability. If approved courses would be effective Fall 2015

September 2015

UCOP emails decisions regarding transferability of courses that were submitted in August 2015. Courses approved can be submitted for review to be included in 2016-2017 GE patterns.

Courses approved by SBVC
Curriculum Committee
2015-2016

October 2015

Courses approved by SBVC Curriculum Committee by the end of September 2015 are submitted to UCOP (2nd round review) for UC transferability effective Fall 2016.

November 2015

UCOP emails decisions regarding transferability of courses that were submitted in October 2015. Courses approved can be submitted for review to be included in 2016-2017 GE patterns.

December 2015

Articulation Officer submits CSU/UC approved transferable courses to be reviewed by CSU/UC reviewers to include in 2016-2017 CSU GE Breadth and/or IGETC patterns

April 2016

2016 GE review decision report is emailed to AO regarding approved courses that will be included in the 2016-2017 CSU GE Breadth and IGETC patterns