5. Provide a specific example of how the instructor will provide synchronous office hours for distance education students? (Ex: Online Conference Tool, Cranium Classroom, Zoom, Pisces, Skype, etc.)

Office Hours will be provided at least once-a-week in synchronous format, either through Zoom, telephone, or in-person. It should be noted that instructor preference is not limited to these three options, as they may use comparable alternative tools with the advisory being "in real time." Email is not considered synchronous in this context.

6. Provide a specific example of how this course's design ensures regular and effective instructor-student contact? (Ex: Threaded discussion forums, weekly announcements, instructor prepared materials, posting video and audio files, timely feedback on exams and projects, synchronous online office hours, synchronous online meetings, synchronous online lectures, etc.)

Specific examples of regular and effective instructor-student contact in this course include the use of weekly threaded discussions that are moderated regularly by the instructor with timely feedback, weekly announcements of upcoming content and deadlines sent by the instructor with comments by students enabled in threads, at least one hour of synchronous commitment by the instructor in office hour form or webinar, timely feedback on exams and projects, and other scenarios made by the instructor.

7. Provide a specific example of how this course will ensure regular and effective student-student contact? (Ex: Threaded discussion forums, assigned group projects, threaded discussions, Notebowl, peer-to-peer feedback, synchronous online meetings, etc.)

The course will utilize synchronous online full-class meetings, threaded discussions for students to engage and learn with each other, Zoom discussions as a class and through Breakout Rooms, Zoom peer feedback sessions, and other methods the instructor sees fit for students to communicate with each other.

8. Describe what students in this online version of the course will do in a typical week on this class. Include the process starting after initial log in.

Students will attend Zoom meetings during which they will learn and practice performance techniques. Students will participate in weekly discussions with each other, quizzes, and projects which will focus on textbook readings and lecture materials. Students will present performances and offer peer feedback during Zoom meetings.

9. Provide a sample statement that could be included in the syllabus for this course that communicates to students the frequency and timeliness of instructor-initiated contact and student feedback.

Instructor will post weekly assignment checklists, provide timely input on threaded discussions, and provide individual feedback on exams, written work and performances in a timely manner. Students may message the instructor directly through LMS messenger or email questions or concerns, which will be responded to within a 24-hour period.
