

Student Learning Outcomes for Reading 915

- SLO#1: Students will demonstrate the ability to use phonics skills to decode single and two-syllable words utilizing consonants and vowels to determine pronunciation of common English words and correctly reading the words aloud.
- SLO#2: Students will demonstrate basic reading ability of material written at the 4th grade level, based on Fry's Readability Scale by locating factual information as presented in readings and correctly answering related comprehension questions.