

Student Learning Outcome

San Bernardino Valley College
Criminal Justice Division
Administration of Justice Department

Administration of Justice Certificate

Students are prepared to:

1. Apply knowledge and skills required in securing and maintaining employment.
2. Analyze the interrelationships between the courts, law enforcement, and corrections.
3. Demonstrate the sequence of events necessary in determining admissibility or suppression of evidence.
4. Demonstrate analysis of basic legal definitions of criminal law.
5. Develop a world view that values why law enforcement is necessary in diverse populations and societies.
6. Choose to further personal interests by completing the requirements for an Administration of Justice degree or developing skills as a crime scene investigator.