CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CRMJUS 070
BASIC DISPATCHERS COURSE

SLO 1:
Students will demonstrate the ability to accurately read and write basic dispatch terminology/vocabulary utilizing context, penal codes/laws, policies/procedures and presentations and correctly identify or write definitions.

SLO 2:
Students will demonstrate the ability to compare and contrast information regarding the use of telecommunications systems and the release of protected information as required by the California Dept. of Justice and the FBI utilizing context to determine meaning and correctly identify or write findings.

SLO 3:
Students will demonstrate the ability to accurately read and write new vocabulary regarding California Laws defining cultural groups, gangs, missing persons, hate crimes, child and elder abuse, domestic violence and community oriented policing utilizing penal code books, context and presented material to determine meaning and correctly identify or write word definitions.