TOPPER (1937)

Tuesday, February 2, 2010

Movie Bio: Roland Young offers a wonderful portrayal of stuffy bank president Cosmo Topper—based on a book by Thorne Smith. Cary Grant and Constance Bennett co-star as ghosts trying to control Topper, a bank man and all around hen-pecked square who has his life turned up-side down by the mischievous doings of a dead former client and said clients late wife. Can Mr. Topper keep his sanity while they try to “help” him learn to live a more fruitful and care-free life?

(Movie Length 184 mins)

THE LITTLE PRINCESS (1939)

Tuesday, April 6, 2010

Movie Bio: When her father is reported killed in the Boer War, pampered rich girl Sara Crewe (Shirley Temple) is left to the mercies of a mean-spirited headmistress. Forced to work as a servant and live in the attic, Sara learns the value of true generosity and real friendship. This classic family film is adapted from Frances Hodgson Burnett's timeless novel.

(Movie Length 90 mins)

DETOUR (1945)

Tuesday, March 2, 2010

Movie Bio: Classic film noir rules when down-in-the-dumps musician Al Roberts (Tom Neal) decides to hitchhike cross-country to be with his chanteuse girlfriend. He accepts a lift from high-roller Charles Haskell Jr. (Edmund MacDonald), who promptly suffers a fatal coronary. Afraid the cops will finger him as a killer; Al ditches the body and assumes Haskell's identity. But Al's trip quickly goes downhill when he picks up a scheming hitchhiker (Ann Savage).

(Movie Length: 67 mins)

HOLLYWOOD & VINE (1945)

Tuesday, May 4, 2010

Movie Bio: After agreeing to write a film about would-be movie starlets, successful screenwriter Larry Winters (James Ellison) takes a job at a drugstore at the intersection of Hollywood and Vine, where pretty young girls are known to flock. Soon enough, Larry's undercover research ends up taking him closer to his subject ... specifically, to a lovely small-town ingenue (Wanda McKay) with dreams of becoming famous.
